SUNDAY 17 – THE HEIGHTS OF HOSPITALITY

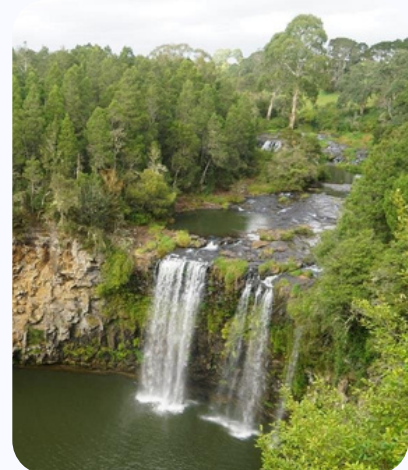

PICKUP | LUNCH | DINNER | ACCOMMODATION

We pick you up early to depart the Sunshine Coast by 8am, with a comfort stop at Yatala Service Centre. We leave the Gold Coast to go over the border, travelling through scenic countryside to our first stop in Maclean. Here, explore “the most Scottish town in Australia” (complete with Gaelic street signs!) and enjoy lunch at the riverside. We then journey on, winding our way to Lookout Mountain Retreat, our home for the next four nights. Settle into your room, take a look around, and perhaps even meet the friendly local deer. Breathe easy in the clean mountain air before Happy Hour at 5.30pm and our dinner together around 6pm.

MONDAY 18 – BROAD HORIZONS, TOWERING FALLS

BREAKFAST | M/T | TOUR | LUNCH | DINNER | ACCOMM.

Treated to breakfast at 7am in our idyllic mountain retreat, we depart at 8am for a wonderful world of waterfalls and lookouts. In nearby Cunnawarra National Park, Beech Lookout offers remarkable views over World Heritage-listed rainforest, and we enjoy a picnic-style morning tea. Next, we tour Dutton Trout Hatchery, learning about aquaculture in this unique region. Lunch today is at the Ebor Hotel, and we absorb the power of nature overlooking the twin-tiered Ebor Falls before departing. The spectacular 30-metre drop of Dangar Falls awaits us next. Stroll Dorrigo’s main street and unwind before we return to our accommodation for dinner.

TUESDAY 19 – MARINE PANORAMAS & OCEAN FRIENDS

BREAKFAST | ENTRY | LUNCH | DINNER | ACCOMMODATION

We breakfast early again at 7am, departing by 8am for Coffs Harbour. Say hello to the coast with panoramic views from Sealy Lookout in Bruxner Park, overlooking verdant nature, coastal towns, and the Solitary Island Marine Park. Next, we head to Coffs Coast Wildlife Sanctuary to meet the animal ambassadors that call this ethics-focused centre their 'forever home'. Featuring dolphins, seals, penguins, and more, this place will charm you! Lunch today will be at the yacht club, with ocean views and time to stroll through the marina. Explore local attractions, including taking funny photos at the Big Banana or enjoying a banana split. We arrive back at our mountain retreat mid to late afternoon.

WEDNESDAY 20 – BOARDWALKS & BROWSING

B'FAST | LUNCH | TASTING | DINNER | ACCOMMODATION

Enjoy a leisurely start today, with breakfast at 7:30 and our day's adventures beginning at 8:30. Travel down the scenic escarpment to the riverside town of Bellingen, where you will have relaxed free time for exploring. Wander down the main street to check out eclectic local boutiques, vintage stores, and art galleries among the historic buildings, or pop into the local brewery. Next, we visit Urunga to stroll along the famous boardwalk over the estuary. Feel like you're walking on water as you discover the many faces of this biome! Lunch today is at Anchor's Wharf, after which we visit The Honey Place for a local honey tasting. Relax back at our retreat by late afternoon, our last night in the high country.

THURSDAY 21 – OLD WORLD, NEW OUTLOOK

BREAKFAST | LUNCH | RETURN HOME

Breakfast is at 7am this morning before we say goodbye to Lookout Mountain Retreat at 8am. Bask in one last sweeping view of the high country at Griffiths Lookout before we begin the journey home. We stop into the Old Butter Factory on the way, an iconic 1906 landmark now home to a café and a range of local artisan shops. Then we continue on to New Italy, a fascinating cross-section of Italian heritage in this region complete with a museum, memorial, public artworks, café, and local produce and crafts for sale. Enjoy a lunch of old-country flavours before we continue north. Our final leg of the journey will include comfort stops at Coomera and Caboolture before returning you home by late afternoon.

RECOMMENDED FITNESS

This tour requires a basic fitness level to enjoy. Walking around townships and on uneven ground at lookouts is an important part of the tour. There will be time to rest in the evenings. In the bus, we break longer journeys every couple of hours for your comfort. Any questions, please ask!

GOOD TO KNOW

We spend our evenings relaxing at our accommodation, so why not bring a conversation piece to light up Happy Hour? Surprise us! Or, you could bring a good book to unwind with after the day's adventures.

★ THE MYSTIC MOUNTAIN DIFFERENCE ★
